Next Business Meeting: Thursday, April 17, 2014

St. Timothy's Episcopal Church

Everyone welcome—No experience necessary!

From Their Excellencies Úlfr and Odile, Baron and Baroness of Sternfeld

Greetings to the Barony!

Now that it finally, finally, seems to be edging toward spring, we hope that you will join us at the first outdoor events of the season. In particular, Coronation is upcoming at the beginning of May in the Shire of Mynydd Seren and Crown Tournament with Kingdom A&S will be held in our Barony over Memorial Day weekend. We can use volunteer help with both of these events, and in particular we encourage those of you who are attending Coronation to volunteer a shift or two to help out our neighbor shire with this event.

We are in the process of building and implementing a broader scope of youth activities for our future events, and to this end we would like to recruit a wide volunteer base of individuals who are interested in assisting with these sorts of activities. We have a need for both persons who have passed an SCA-authorized background check and those who have not, to supervise and lead these events. Our goal with this arrangement is to spread the workload for youth activities around onto many people, and to draw in teachers of various activities who do not have the interest or availability to dedicate a large chunk of time, but can manage a short one. If this is something that sounds interesting to you, please contact Her Excellency (baroness@sternfeld.org) and she can put you in touch with the discussion group online.

Make things, fight hard, shoot straight!

Odile, Baroness Úlfr, Baron

From the Seneschal

Greetings from your new seneschal!

In my first few weeks on duty, nothing has exploded, and very little paperwork has been necessary. Thank you all for that. Thank you, also, for your patience as I get acclimated. Some things I wanted to share in this, my first official month on the job:

1. I've just sent off my first batch of waivers to the Kingdom waiver deputy. Waivers are pretty important, so a huge thanks to everyone who takes the extra few seconds to fill them out at events for keeping us "legal."

2. Officially, my job is to do a bunch of mundane stuff, like signing contracts and presiding over our business meetings (which are not that bad, really, and you should come!). But I'm also supposed to concern myself with the health and well-being of the group more generally. So, if you're not having fun and you think there's something that can be done to change that, by all means let me know. Conversely, if there's something amazing happening, let me know (and also let the Baron and Baroness know who started by filling out an award recommendation – <http://www.midrealm.org/sternfeld/awards.php>). I can make no promises that I have the ability to "fix" things or "make" things happen, but I'd like to encourage things that increase everyone's enjoyment and discourage things that annoy or endanger people.

3. And finally, I want to welcome all our recent newcomers, whether they joined us by being "born in to the family" or by dropping by as a youth or adult and introducing themselves. Established members, these people are the future of our group, so please reach out to them (or their parents) and do what you can to help them feel welcome and involved. Some very simple and impactful ways you can help keep Sternfeld growing:

- If you see a new face, introduce yourself. Our Group Marshals have line marshals because they cannot be omnipresent. Every Sternfelder is a line chatelaine.
- Do more than just participate in the time-honored Sternfeld tradition of holding-other-people's-babies. Look down from time to time to see if there's someone little creepily giving you their undivided attention. Where safe and appropriate, make strides to involve them in what's going on. They may not have the hand-eye coordination to participate in what you're doing, but encourage them to watch and ask questions. Keep them safe, encouraging their parents to be present and involved. Listen to them, as SCAdian kids tend to be insightful, intensely-interested, and funny, just like their parents. Our little ones can grow up around the SCA or they can grow up in the SCA.

- If you are an officer, check your @sternfeld.org address regularly (log in, or set up auto-forwarding). This is the first point of contact for newcomers who visit our website, and they will use it to reach out to us, often long before they take the leap and venture to a fighter practice to meet us in person. Don't make them wait until the next officer changeover for a response to their queries.
- Encourage all officers and deputies of childbearing age to drink the water. (Exempting myself and our Webminister/Chronicler because we have our hands full.)

Yours in service,

Lady Ysabel de la Zarza

From the Chronicler/Webminister

Buon Giorno,

We have a lot to cover this month, so I'll jump right in! Let's start with officer's reports. I didn't get many this month. Please send officer's reports to me each month, prior to the Business Meeting – a request for your reports is included on the reminder for Business Meeting, as sent by Yahoo Groups. Please send your reports to chronicler@sternfeld.org and send a copy to the Seneshal at seneschal@sternfeld.org. This will serve as your report at the business meeting if you are not present. It doesn't have to be long.

I'm still looking for a deputy. Specifically, I'm looking for someone who is interested in becoming my warranted deputy for both Chronicler and Webminister so they can take over in an emergency – I'm not expecting to need a lot of ongoing help, but I need someone who is able to help when I really need it. Please email me at either address if you are interested and we'll talk.

I'm looking for cover photos for the Star. I'd like to do a theme this year (and possibly longer if I can get enough submissions) where the cover photo is a photo of a member of the group's livestock or plants. Anyone with photos that they would like to submit, please complete the release form at <http://sca.org/docs/pdf/ReleasePhotographerFillable.pdf> and check the option for publish the Photograph once in an issue of The Sternfeld Star as well as the option for publish the Photograph on a SCA web site for The Barony of Sternfeld. Both options are required for me to be able to publish the photo in the Star, and publish the Star online. Please email the completed release form and a digital copy of the photo to the chronicler@sternfeld.org email address. Please and thank you for making our newsletter more interesting to look at!

Does anyone read this? Please send me an email at chronicler@sternfeld.org with the subject line "Swordfish" and I'll be eternally grateful.

I've had a few questions over the last few weeks about where things will be published. In general, here's the principle I'm working with: if it's informational about something we are doing as a group, such as events, practices, meetings, etc., it will be in both the Star and on the website. Business meeting minutes will be published in both places as well. The Star will have one additional category – your creative works! I'm looking for submissions of poetry, articles, photographs, etc. Anything that is topical to period or our recreation of the period. I've had a few submissions and promises of submissions, but we've got lots of space, as I can always add more pages. This publication is a place to share what you've been up to with everyone in the group. I encourage everyone to send me something about their specific area of interest.

The Crown Tournament website is up and available – additional information is being posted there as it is known and shared. The Baronial Birthday mini-site and the Simple Day site are the next two web projects I'll be working on. As always, department heads – please send me information about your area of responsibility and make sure to copy the Event Steward!

Lastly, if you've somehow managed to avoid seeing the publicity all over the web, you may not have seen that the Sternfeld Cooks Group has put together a survey about feasts – this survey already has over 1300 responses, but the more the merrier! Please consider going to fill out the survey at <http://www.midrealm.org/sternfeld/feast.php> between now and the end of the month. Results will be tabulated (with that many, it may take some time) and then they will be shared!

See you next month!

YIS,

Antonio Bellini

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences

Greetings unto the gentles of our fair barony!

The A&S completion season is heating up! If you are entering, are you ready? Whether you are or not entering, judges are always needed. If you've never judged before, it's not hard and we can even place you with someone who is more experienced. Judges still learn some things and can even pick up some more sources they may have not been aware of. Who knows, you may even get an idea or two for next year!

Your next Artisan of the Month is our Exchequer Signora Elisabetta Morosini di Mettenini!

Elisabetta hails from Firenze, Italia in the Late Quattrocento (late 15th century). She is apprenticed to Mistress Gianetta Andreini da Vicenza. Elisabetta loves all things costuming related. She has been working on a Norse/Rus outfit for her husband, as well as researching a coat from the Greenland finds. When I asked her why she does this particular art, she replied:

“Because I don't want me or my family to run around naked. And because it's fun.”

Elisabetta taught herself to sew when she was in high school, and has been doing historical costuming since she joined the SCA in 1995. When I asked how she got started, she said:

“My first friend in the SCA, Master Jovian Skleros (Ansteorra) gave me a book for my birthday, 'Textiles and Clothing' from the Museum of London. I used that, and lots of pictures to create my first dress.”

Her advice for someone wanting to get started in costuming is to look at a lot of period artwork, and extant pieces, and just keep trying.

Elisabetta admires Mistress Gianetta, Baroness Odile de Brienne, Mistress Crispinne di la Vallee, and Master Jose (East Kingdom). They do beautiful work themselves, and encourage her to keep improving.

She is fascinated by all the time periods, and has a goal to have the history of Italian costume in her closet.

Please keep the nominations coming!! I am fast running out of nominations and can't do this without your help! I want to hear about what everyone is working on so I can share with you. Who knows, maybe you will realize someone is doing something you had no idea anyone was doing. Mayhap you find a new activity that piques your interest.

As always, if you need something, please feel free to ask. If I don't know, I will make every attempt to find someone to answer your question.

In your service,

Duncan

March Business Meeting Minutes

Barony of Sternfeld - Business Meeting - 03/20/2014

Reports:

Baronial: Attempting to setup a network of youth volunteers. There's a Facebook group. Contact the Baroness if you are interested in helping, either as a background checked person or just a volunteer who helps out.

Great Officers and Their Deputies:

Seneschal: Waivers were sent to Kingdom. Transition of office paperwork was lost and is being redone. A group called the Grand Council that advises the SCA Corporate Board exists - they do not currently have a Midrealm representative. If interested in becoming a member, either as an at large member or an active representative for the Midrealm, please consider it. Anyone can subscribe to their email list if they are interested in following the discussion.

Chatelaine: A number of new faces have been showing up recently. If you see a new face, go meet them. Simple Day is the new target for the Chatelaine auction.

Herald: No report this month.

Chronicler: February Star was published. March will be published today or tomorrow. Looking for a deputy for both the Chronicler and Webminister officers. It's fun! Officers aren't sending in reports. Please send in reports next month, and make sure to copy the Seneschal.

Exchequer: Quarterly report is in and corrected. BWTA financials are still being compiled, but we have about $15,000 in the bank right now.

Property: We will need some new bins shortly to replace the oldest ones. A motion was made and seconded for $100 to be approved for new bins. The polling passed.

Martial:

Armored: Gulf Wars took it's toll on Fighter Practice attendance. Consider checking your armor and having it inspected - clean your armor bags and get your stuff fixed. Polling on Dyderich as the Armored Fighting Marshall has been completed - Dyderich is our new armored marshal. Please check nooks and crannies of your home for Baronial tabards, etc. that you may be holding.

Rapier: Throwdown was this week - 12 people showed up. There's a new set of rules coming out in April. Be on the lookout.

Archery: Quite a few new people have shown up since BWTA - three new families. Attendance has been averaging about 15 per night. Winter challenge took place recently.

Youth: There are new youth interested. Rose is working on getting this started back up again.

Equestrian: Took horses to Gulf Wars. 48 Horses attended! Met a lot of other equestrians. Sternfeld has our practice Sunday April 6th at 2:00 PM. A new group is getting together in Fort Wayne to do equestrian! They've been putting calls out on many lists.

Chirurgeon: No report.

Arts and Sciences: Constellation A&S is Saturday. Seeking new people for the Artisan of the Month feature in the Star.

Ars Rustica: Catalogs, etc. People are buying chickens and seeds.

Cooks: Did not meet this month.

Brewers: Xenon offered up some really cool looking bottles. See Austorga if you are interested in them. Sent 15 gallons of mead to Gulf Wars. Group dormant at the moment.

Costumers: Met this month at St. Timothy's. Worked with new people on their costuming needs.

Largesse: Mostly dormant. We need Largesse - a listing of things we need was put on the Largesse Facebook group. There's a sign up on volunteer spot.

Bardic/Performing Arts: No report this month.

Lesser Offices:

Web Minister: Crown website will be going up soon. If you are the leader of a department, please make sure to submit details about your activity. Make sure to copy crown@sternfeld.org on any coorespondence to keep your event stewards in the loop.

Minister of Youth: Office vacant but a group of interested parties is working on planning for events.

Prize Czar: Contact her with your needs before upcoming events! We have prizes.

Old Business:

Recent and Upcoming Events:

Better War Through Archery Postmortem: 135 Paid Adults. 9 Teens. Undersold feast - only 49 instead of 66 seats sold. Brought in $2,744 + refund of site deposit and refund from Sunday, it appears we probably made a smallish profit on the event. There's limited interest in Sunday activities - future autocrats should consider not running Sunday activities for this event.

Crown: May 24th-25th. Wulfwen/Moira stewards. Updates: Finishing details with the site. Cannot have alcohol on site. Vinting and Brewing entries will be judged at Moira's house - 5 minutes from site. Equestrian activities will be on site - details being worked out, insurance being obtained, as required by Society. Archery - there was a question if we could do it. Looks like we will be able to. Compound bows (which aren't allowed anyway) won't be allowed. Department Heads are needed - parking, camping, youth activities, hall steward, head server, interior decorator, and someone to cook bread for the judges lunch. If you are a department head, let Cecily know what volunteer shifts you will need to fill so she can add them to VolunteerSpot. There will be a table decorating competition for feast on Sunday. There's also a cake decorating contest - see details on the Crown website when it is up. Odette will be sponsoring a banner competition for decorating the halls as well. Tournament will be outside if weather permits. Site tour this Sunday at 2:00 PM. Al Jafar is doing the populace lunch for both days. Great food at a great price. "The Jafar Rock Cafe".

Baronial Birthday: Steward is Austorga. 30th Anniversary! Being held at Sahn Park, as it was the first location of the first Baronial Meeting. Two options were considered: An indoor building with flush bathrooms, vs. a Shelter with more outdoor space but less amenities. A motion passed first polling for up to $400 for the event, with the more primitive option as the group's first priority unless there is no water available at that location, in which case we'd prefer the option with more amenities.

Simple Day: July 11th-13th. Steward is Moira Chance. Second polling passed on budget, which again, is pretty much the same as last year because the site costs, attendance estimates, etc. are the same. The lunch budget of $650 (the minutes from January misstate the first polling's budget as $550) passed second polling. Demos: None Scheduled.

New Business: 948 Respondents to the Feast Survey so far. (Editor's note: We are now over 1300 responses!)

A motion for $150 for radios. was made and passed. Ronan will shop and purchase. Second polling will be done via emergency finance committee as that's the only way to ensure the radios arrive before Crown.

Barony of Sternfeld – Emergency Finance Committee - 03/20/2014

A second polling for $150 for radios, in order that they might be purchased and received before Crown, was passed.
