Next Business Meeting: Thursday, May 21, 2015

at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church

Everyone welcome—No experience necessary!

From Their Excellencies Úlfr and Odile, Baron and Baroness of Sternfeld

Spring is here and you are all busy being fantastic in various ways. Thank you for that! We've been thrilled in the past month to see melee training on the armored and rapier fields, excellent arts and sciences entries in the regional A&S faires, as well as Sternfeld populace volunteering just about everywhere. This is great! We're also pleased to have an Official Baronial Archery Roustabout signed on for Pennsic, in order to coerce the archers of the Barony (including His Excellency and myself) into actually going out and shooting war points daily. Archery is an area in which Sternfeld excels but the Midrealm has historically struggled, and we would like to do our part to score points for the Dragon. You can help!

We have also decided that our Baronial Championship fights (armored and rapier) will be held at the demo of Baronial Birthday, so if you are interested in taking the field in pursuit of either of these roles, please plan to attend. We know that the people who come to see the demo will be thrilled by the rousing combat they will see in this tournament. We will be holding our A&S Champion display at this event as well, and our Bardic Challenge (at which our Court Bard is selected). We look forward to seeing all the entries - look for more info in this space next month about the guidelines of the A&S Champion competition!

Yours In Service,

Baroness Odile Baron Úlfr

From the Equestrian Marshal

Greetings from the Equestrian Officer! 2015 has been off to a slow start, but things are finally happening now that better weather has arrived. We held our first practice the first Sunday of April and we had four riders of which one was a first timer! The horses were a bit of a mess, but everyone had fun.

Our next practice will be at the Mooresville site on Sunday, May 3 where will be giving the rings a try. I need to finish assembling this particular game set, but I promise it will be ready in time!

I should have word on the insurance for the Indianapolis practice site very soon. Once that is active, I will be sending out notifications on dates, but they will likely vary throughout the year as we will simply hold practice when there is interest and no major event conflicts. More to come!

Lastly, I want to congratulate two very dear friends. Our former Sternfeld Equestrian Officer, Lady Kiltigern MacClibarn is now Lancer Kiltigern MacClibarn! And Tualaliath of Sternfeld is the Midrealm's newest Equestrian Marshal! Thank you to both of you for helping build the Sternfeld equestrian community.

And you can be part of that community too! Come join us!

In service,

Lord Michael de Quarmby

From the Chronicler/Webminister

Buon Giorno,

Simple Day site is live and being updated periodically as new information is known. My apologies for the April Star being published so late. Make sure to see the many and sundry extra things in this month's issue!

YIS,

Antonio Bellini

From the Arts and Sciences Minister

People are making things, creating things, and ideas. This is good. I am glad to see this.

This past weekend, Elisabeta at the South Oaken Regional A&S Faire and Martial RUM, advanced to the Kingdom A&S Faire with placing a first for her entry. Yay!

For her progress, she is Sternfeld's Artisan of the Month. Please, congratulate her and support her efforts, and all Sternfeldians who have and will enter the A&S Faires.

There was some discussion about those interested in doing/learning calligraphy and/or illumination getting together. Is there still interest in this?

Keep making stuff,
Breddelwyn ap Taliesin

From the Property Master

Members of the Barony,

I am always looking to improve the Barony's equipment, and supply the items we need for each year. It is always helpful to receive suggestions for items that we may want to purchase. Please send suggestions for items the Barony should purchase to propertymaster@sternfeld.org.

YIS,
Ronan of Keith

I Have Seen the Sun, by THL Breddelwyn ap Taliesin

I have seen the sun,
I have seen the stars,
I have seen the blessings
Of this Land.

I have seen the land,
I have seen the sea,
I have seen the gifts
Of the People.

I have seen the people,
I have seen the children,
I have seen the Love
Each has for All.

I have seen the steel,
I have seen the strength,
I have seen the valor
Of this Land's Warriors.

I have seen the beauty,
I have seen the magic,
I have seen the Skill
Of this Land's Artisans.

For this,
I am glad
I am here
For I have seen the sun,
I have seen the stars.

From the Seneschal

Hello, Sternfeld.

Great news this month: we've made the last few proposed bylaws revisions and it's time to poll on them at the May Business Meeting. Please review the proposed changes, which have been discussed twice in open council already. We will discuss this final draft at the May Meeting. If you cannot make it, send feedback to seneschal@sternfeld.org and make your opinions heard.

Yours in service,

Ysabel

Section 2.02 The Coronet shall have power to change these laws only after obtaining sage counsel from the Barony in open council as defined in Article III, Section 3.01, provided that said changes do not in any way conflict with any part of the laws of the modern governmental institutions having authority over those areas within which the Barony of Sternfeld is said to hold sway, the laws of the Middle Kingdom or the Corpora of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. These changes must be publicly proclaimed at Court and officially published in the baronial newsletter, ~~The Sternfeld Star~~ (hereinafter referred to as the ~~Star~~), before becoming law. "Officially published" is defined as publication in an official Baronial communication channel. The official communication channels of the Barony are the ~~Star~~ and/or the Baronial website.

Section 2.03 The Coronet shall have the power to bestow Baronial awards as they are defined in Baronial Law.

Section 2.04 The Coronet shall have the power to declare proclamations as it so chooses. Such proclamations shall have the force of law and shall be in effect only for the duration of the reign or a year and a day, whichever is less. These proclamations must be publicly proclaimed at Court and officially published in the ~~Star~~ before taking effect. Such proclamations cannot be contrary to ~~common laws~~ the laws of the Middle Kingdom or the Corpora of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.

Section 2.05 The powers of the Coronet shall extend only to the affairs of the Barony, not extending to the modern era.

Section 2.06 The Coronet shall report all awards given at Baronial Courts to the Star. The Coronet may delegate this responsibility to the ~~Herald~~ as it sees fit, but the ultimate responsibility shall rest with the Coronet.

Section 2.07 A member of the College of Seneschals and of the College of Heralds, or designated deputies, shall be at the side of the Coronet at all times when Court ~~and other public Baronial business~~ is being conducted.

Article III. Baronial Policies and Procedures

An opinion polling is not a vote. It is merely a way for the Seneschal to assess the opinions of the people. It is most often the case that consensus is reached in open council, so that the results of opinion polling and voting with a majority ruling look identical. When evaluating a poll, the Seneschal takes into account many factors, including:

- a. A substantial majority of those present in open council must participate (not abstain) in the polling.
- b. A substantial majority of the response should be favorable.
- c. The opposition should not be convincing.
- d. The decision should generally contribute to the healthy functioning of the group.
- e. The opinions of those not present in open council may be used to inform decisions and are welcomed. However, the opinions of those paid members present in open council is crucial.

The Seneschal recommends an officer candidate to the Regional/Kingdom superior based on opinion pollings. Similarly, when opinion pollings are conducted regarding event stewards (acting deputies to the Seneschal), expenditures, and other matters, the Seneschal may recommend, with cause, another course of action than the polling suggests, especially in situations where the majority is not substantial or the or the decision endangers the health of the group.

3.03 Finance. Monies not exceeding the amount of ~~twenty-five dollars ($25)~~ one hundred dollars ($100.00) may be disbursed from Baronial funds with the consensus of a single open council. Two opinion pollings must be conducted for larger expenditures. Detailed policies and procedures governing the use and management of Baronial funds are published in the group's Financial Policy, which is updated annually to ensure compliance with Society and Kingdom financial policies.
