From the Baron/Baroness

Unto the populace,

Spring is now fairly upon us, and we are overjoyed with the addition of warm days to our lands. The Wars in the distant south are concluded, and we are assured that those of our armies who journeyed there acquitted themselves well, covering themselves with glory and renown for the honor of the Middle Kingdom.

We have some business to report from the few months previous, beginning with our Holiday Court held in January of this year. At this Court we gave the following awards:

Cecily O'Donnell - Border Guard
Jok Turnour - Yeoman
Ellbrig - Yeoman
Rurik the Red - Winged Crescent
Rose Robyn of Winchester - Ursa Minor
Nicolas Jean de Carcassonne - Nova
Margaret O'Monaghan - Order of Sternfeld

We were also pleased to recognize Maestro Adam Comyn as our Rapier Champion and Lady Agnes of Beckenham as our Armored Champion at this Court.

At Better War Through Archery, we were well pleased to indict Lord Frodi Ketilsson into the Border Guard, and install Lord Eadric the Mad as our new Archery Champion.

Grand Pageant is just around the corner, with Simple Day following close after that. We know everyone will pull together to make these events a success!

Yours in service,
Odile, Baroness      Úlfr, Baron

From the Chronicler

Greetings!

At the April business meeting, we will be looking at 2 different formats for the Sternfeld Star. One, like this one, has officer reports. The other will be to Society minimums. Both will be published to the website this month. Please let me know if you have a preference.

In service,

Mistress Moira

From the Webminister

Greetings from the Web!

We are changing the way we share information. Monthly business meeting minutes will be posted on Sternfeld.org.

I ask that you please contact me if you see your group missing from the schedule so I can add it.

The Webminister's quarterly report was submitted to the Middle Kingdom.

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences

Greetings unto Sternfeld.

Sternfeld has done it again with the talent that is in the Barony with the success of Better War Through Archery.

At the event the Constellation Regional A&S Fair was held.

Many people worked hard to put this together, to have dancing and music, to have a wonderful feast.

Odette, Johann, Colette, Riviere, Ronan, Vlad, Moira, Lucia, and the Barony of Sternfeld, many thanks are given for the Arts and Sciences.

Bredelwyn ap Taliesin.

From the Equestrian Marshal

Greetings from the Equestrian Officer!

First, I want to thank EVERYONE that came out to Sternfeld equestrian practices in 2016. I want to also thank all the Equestrian Marshals that helped me throughout the year. I would also like to thank Just Us Stables for their generosity and allowing us to hold practices every month. It was a great year. All the horses and riders ended the year without injury and hopefully a bit more knowledge and skill. I encourage anyone who wants to get serious about SCA Equestrian, consider taking riding lessons. Being secure in your seat and your confidence will allow you to excel in SCA Equestrian games and activities.

For 2017, practices will continue at Just Us Stables generally on the first Sunday of the month. I will be publishing a schedule early January to the Sternfeld website. I have received the insurance form, and practices will resume in February 2017.

Also, I am technically stepping out of the Baronial Equestrian Officer on January 1, 2017 and I will be assuming the office of Middle Kingdom Equestrian Officer. Until a replacement is found, I will continue to act as the local Sternfeld equestrian resource.

I look forward to 2017 and growing the Equestrian program. Come join us!

In Service,
Lord Michael de Quarmby
Acting Sternfeld Equestrian Officer
Middle Kingdom Equestrian Officer

From the Archery Marshal

Greetings One and All;

John of Sternfeld here.

After a 15 year hiatus I am again filing reports on behalf of the Barony.

As of the last business meeting and when the change of officer form finds its way I have assumed the duties of Baronial Archery Marshal.

Status of Archery in the Barony - currently we have no regular practice site. There are a few possibilities in the works; Sunnyside Recreational Center, Hendrick Cty Fairgrounds [Sternfeld's go-to site] & a recently received from the current Baronial Champion - in Martinsville [I expect this one to be outdoors]. I would appreciate feedback as to attendance on the possible sites.

As of BWTA I completed the requirements to become a warranted archery marshal, card is hopefully soon in the mail. However there is a fly in the ointment. My current mudane job has me working nights M-F and I have a regular commitment Sundays 4-9 which does limit my available time.

As the weather warms I plan to host some rounds of archery golf at the site on Pendleton Pike. I will get an address/directions to site for newcomers.

Please send any comments, advice, etc to archery@sternfeld.org.

Thanks;

JoS
